

eComXpo April 2006 Education Schedule Announced

Interact with top luminaries in the fields of Affiliate, Search and Interactive Marketing from your desktop!

Chicago, IL (March 29, 2006) eComXpo, the virtual tradeshow for eCommerce marketers, will be hosting their third event April 4-6th, 2006. The event will feature 17 panel presentations from industry luminaries and three keynote addresses. Each panel will include noted speakers and moderators such as Paul Colligan, Tim Tuttle, Declan Dunn, Shawn Collins, Catherine Seda and Andy Beal. The over 7,000 anticipated attendees will be able to experience all the first-run education, exhibitors, prizes and networking free of charge from the convenience of their home or office.

Over the three-day conference attendees can watch presentations and then hear answers to their questions broadcast live, courtesy of Webmaster Radio. Each of the panelists will be available on a conference call following the presentations so that attendees can text in questions and hear the answers live. This April's show features 17 panels on topics dealing with Search, Interactive and Affiliate Marketing; panels include The New Affiliate World, moderated by Declan Dunn, Getting the Word Out, moderated by Jennifer Laycock, Profitable Podcasting – Fact or Fiction, moderated by Paul Colligan, Search: The Next Frontiers, moderated by David Berkowitz and The Big Blog, moderated by Amanda Watlington. These panels as well as the three keynote addresses will be available free of charge to show participants.

This April, eComXpo will be debuting the eComXpo University. The University is a one-stop-shop for all education featured at eComXpos past and present. Attendees can enroll at the discounted price of $49.95 between now and April 7th. People who enroll will be able to view over 160 educational presentations from April 4th, 2006 through September 30th, 2006.
